

Dear Members and Friends,

Please accept our sincere apologies for the error in our previous newsletter. We would like to clarify that our Guadiana River Cruise will take place on Monday, June 9th. We are grateful to those who noticed the discrepancy and kindly brought it to our attention— thank you for your attention to detail.

We are currently organizing our lists for the upcoming events. Please note that while we will respond to all inquiries, it may take a little time as we work through each message with care. Below, please find an agenda of planned events in Loulé area with a short description and prices. All the details will be provided closer to the events' dates. Stay tuned and book now!
